

CITY OF BOAZ

WORK SESSION MINUTES

January 25, 2021

The Mayor and Council met January 25, 2021 at 5:00 p.m. for a work session at the Boaz Senior Center.

Members Present: Council Members David Ellis, Josh Greer, Johnny Willis, Mike Matthews, and Mayor Pro Tem Jeff Sims.

Member Absent: Mayor David Dyar.

The following topics were discussed:

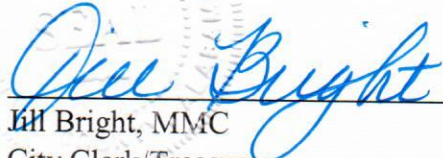

1. Each Department Head was given time to talk about what was going on in their department.
 - Fire Chief Jeff Beck reported that the new Brush truck was at NAFECO and he would be going Wednesday to do an inspection.
 - Street Superintendent Kenny Smith reported that ALDOT is looking into replacing the bridge on Hwy 205 close to the golf course.
 - Librarian Lynn Burgess reported that the February take home packets are ready to be picked up. The Library is going to open up in-person programs in March.
 - Police Chief Josh Gaskin told the council about the two new hires that were on the agenda. He also reported that TARCOG said we should be getting a letter in a couple of weeks about a grant we had applied for.
 - Personnel Director/Director of Economic Development Kerry Walls talked to the council about changing the phone systems within the city departments. We received a quote from Farmers Telecommunication Corporation and SpectrumVoIP.
 - Senior Center Director Susan Duvall reported that the senior center is still closed but they are still delivering meals.
2. Discussed the January 25, 2021 council meeting agenda.

Meeting adjourned at 5:51 p.m.
